

IFC-CEMLA Satellite Seminar on Financial Inclusion

Marrakech, Morocco, 14 July 2017

Preliminary agenda

1. Conceptual framework of financial inclusion and central bank involvement

- Dimensions of financial inclusion and usefulness of measuring it
- Harmonizing financial inclusion measures: needs and scope
- The coverage of financial inclusion in central banks' mandates
- Governance of activities related to financial inclusion: within central banks and at the country level
- Central bank communication on financial inclusion related aspects

2. Data and statistics on financial inclusion

- Data types
- Data sources
- Data gaps

3. Regulatory and policy challenges arising from financial inclusion

- Monetary policy implementation
- Financial stability risks
- Financial regulation and inclusion: banks, market infrastructures (retail and digital payment system platforms) and other entities (telecom operators, FinTech companies)

4. International collaboration on assessing financial inclusion

- Best practices related to defining, measuring and analyzing financial inclusion
- International data sharing and coordination